1. INTRODUCTION

PAFA is committed to the observance of and compliance with the directives of the South African Constitution and national legislation which endorse the key principles of good corporate governance, transparency and accountability.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 (PAIA) gives effect to carry out section 32 of the South African Constitution, which focuses on the right to access information, i.e., everyone has the right of access to information held by the state or a private body to enforce a culture of transparency and accountability.

Section 51 of PAIA obliges private bodies (including PAFA) to compile a manual to enable a person to obtain access to information held by such a private body and stipulates the minimum requirements that the manual has to comply with.

This manual constitutes the PAIA Manual of PAFA. This manual is compiled in accordance with section 51 of PAIA as amended by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (POPIA). POPIA promotes the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies, including certain conditions so as to establish minimum requirements for the processing of personal information. POPIA amends certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information.

This manual also includes information on the submission of objections to the processing of personal information and requests to delete or destroy personal information or records thereof in terms of POPIA.

2. LIST OF ACRONYMS AND ABBREVIATIONS

3. PURPOSE OF PAIA MANUAL

This manual is useful for the public to:

- 3.1. check the categories of records held by the Federation which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
- 3.2. have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of the Federation, by providing a description of the subjects on which the Federation holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
- 3.3. know the description of the records of the Federation which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
- 3.4. access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
- 3.5. know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator and how to obtain access to it;
- 3.6. know if the Federation will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 3.7. know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
- 3.8. know if the Federation has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
- 3.9. know whether the Federation has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

4. KEY CONTACT DETAILS FOR ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Although we have used our best endeavours to supply a list of applicable legislation, it is possible that this list may be incomplete. Whenever it comes to our attention that existing or new legislation allows a Requester access on a basis other than as set out in PAIA, we will update the list accordingly. If a Requester believes that a right of access to a record exists in terms of other legislation listed above or any other legislation, the Requester is required to indicate what legislative right the request is based on, to allow the Information Officer the opportunity of considering the request in light thereof.

8. CATEGORIES OF RECORDS HELD BY PAFA

Records maintained by the Federation are outlined in Appendix A.

However, please note that recording a category or subject matter in this manual does not imply that a Request for access to such Records would be honoured. In particular, certain grounds of refusal as set out in the Act may be applicable to a Request for such Records. All Requests for access will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

9. CATEGORIES OF REQUESTORS

The capacity under which a Requestor makes a request for records defines the category in which the Requestor will fall into. There are four categories of Requestors:

- 9.1. A Data Subject who makes requests about themselves;
- 9.2. A Representative who makes a request on behalf of the Data Subject(s);
- 9.3. A Third Party who requests information about a Data Subject; or
- 9.4. A Public Body who requests information in the public interest.

10. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS IN TERMS OF PAIA

The following are the grounds on which the Federation may, subject to the exceptions contained in Chapter 4 of PAIA, refuse a Request for access in accordance with Chapter 4 of PAIA:

- 10.1. mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, including a deceased person, where such disclosure of Personal Information would be unreasonable;
- 10.2. mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the Records contain:
 - 10.2.1. trade secrets of that third party;
 - 10.2.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information of the third party, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; and/or
 - 10.2.3. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Federation, the disclosure of which could put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the third party in commercial competition;
 - 10.2.4. mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- 10.3. mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;

- 10.4. mandatory protection of Records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- 10.5. protection of the commercial information of the Federation, which may include:
 - 10.5.1. trade secrets;
 - 10.5.2. financial/commercial, scientific or technical information, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Federation;
 - 10.5.3. information which, if disclosed, could put the Federation at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the Federation in commercial competition; and/or
 - 10.5.4. computer programs which are owned by the Federation, and which are protected by copyright and intellectual property laws;
- 10.6. research information of the Federation or a third party, if such disclosure would place the research or the researcher at a serious disadvantage; and
- 10.7. Requests for Records that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources

11. INFORMATION OR RECORDS NOT FOUND

If the Federation cannot find the records that the Requestor is looking for despite reasonable and diligent search and it believes either that the records are lost or that the records are in its possession but unattainable, the Requestor will receive a notice in this regard from the Information Officer in the form of an affidavit setting out the measures taken to locate the document and accordingly the inability to locate the document.

12. REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO THE REQUESTOR UPON REFUSAL OF A REQUEST FOR ACCESS IN TERMS OF PAIA

The Federation does not have internal appeal procedures. As such, the decision made by the Information Officer is final, and Requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the Request for access is refused.

In accordance with sections 56(3) (c) and 78 of PAIA, a Requestor may apply to a court for relief within 180 days of notification of the decision for appropriate relief.

13. PROCEDURE FOR A REQUEST FOR ACCESS IN TERMS OF PAIA

A Requestor must comply with all the procedural requirements as contained in section 53 of PAIA relating to a Request for access to a Record.

A Requestor must complete the prescribed Request for Access form attached as Appendix B and submit the completed Request for Access form as well as payment of a request fee (if applicable) and a deposit (if applicable), to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, or electronic mail address stated in clause 4 above.

The Request for Access form must be completed with enough detail so as to enable the Information Officer to identify the following:

- 13.1. the Record/s requested;
- 13.2. the identity of the Requestor;
- 13.3. the form of access that is required, if the request is granted;
- 13.4. the postal address or fax number of the Requestor; and
- 13.5. the right that the Requestor is seeking to protect and an explanation as to why the Record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.

If a Request for access is made on behalf of another person, the Requestor must submit proof of the capacity in which the Requestor is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.

The Federation will voluntarily provide the requested Records to a Personal Requestor (as defined in section 1 of PAIA). The prescribed fee for reproduction of the Record requested by a Personal Requestor will be charged in accordance with section 54(6) of PAIA and clause 14.

14. FEES

Prescribed fees were published by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development in the Government Gazette No. 23119, General Notice No. 187 of 15 February 2002. Please refer to Appendix C for PAFA's fee structure.

15. INFORMATION AVAILABLE IN TERMS OF POPIA

In terms of POPIA, personal information must be processed for a specified purpose. The purpose for which data is processed by PAFA will depend on the nature of the data and the Data Subject. This purpose is ordinarily disclosed, explicitly or implicitly, at the time the data is collected. Please also refer to PAFA's Privacy Policy for further information.

Categories of personal information collected by PAFA

PAFA may collect information relating to an identifiable, living, natural person, and where it is applicable, an identifiable, existing juristic person, including, but not limited to-

- information relating to the race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental health, well-being, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language and birth of the person;
- information relating to the education or the medical, financial, criminal or employment history of the person;
- any identifying number, symbol, e-mail address, physical address, telephone number, location information, online identifier or other particular assignment to the person;
- the biometric information of the person;

- the personal opinions, views or preferences of the person;
- correspondence sent by the person that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature or further correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence;
- the views or opinions of another individual about the person; and
- the name of the person if it appears with other personal information relating to the person or if the disclosure of the name itself would reveal information about the person.

The purpose of processing personal information

In general, personal information is processed for purposes of on-boarding members and suppliers, service or product delivery, records management, event management, employment, travel arrangements and related matters.

Categories of data subjects

PAFA holds information and records on the following categories of data subjects:

- members of PAFA;
- employees / personnel of PAFA;
- independent contractors of PAFA;
- suppliers of PAFA;
- stakeholders of PAFA; and
- any third party with whom PAFA conducts business.

Categories of recipients to whom personal information may be supplied

Depending on the nature of the personal information, PAFA may supply information or records to the following categories of recipients:

- statutory oversight bodies, regulators or judicial commissions of enquiry making a request for data;
- any court, administrative or judicial forum, arbitration, statutory commission, or ombudsman making a request for data or discovery in terms of the applicable rules;
- South African Revenue Services, or another similar authority;
- anyone making a successful application for access in terms of PAIA or POPIA; and
- subject to the provisions of POPIA and other relevant legislation, PAFA may share information about a client's creditworthiness with any credit bureau or credit providers industry association or other association for an industry in which PAFA operates.

Transborder flows of personal information

PAFA may transfer a data subject's information to service providers in countries outside South Africa, these countries may not have data-protection laws which are similar to those of South Africa. Where this is done, PAFA does so in accordance with applicable laws.

16. AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

This manual will be updated as required or when the relevant legislation changes. This manual is available for inspection on <https://www.pafa.org.za>. The Manual is also available for viewing at PAFA's head office. Copies of the Manual may be made available subject to the prescribed fees.

APPENDIX C: FEES PAYABLE

Request fees

Where a Requestor submits a Request for access to information held by PAFA on a person other than the Requestor himself/herself, a Request fee in the amount of R50.00 is payable up-front before PAFA will further process the Request received. This Request fee may be paid at the time a Request is made, or the person authorised to deal with such Requests on PAFA's behalf may notify the Requestor to pay the Request fee before processing the Request any further. A Requestor may make an application to Court to be exempted from the requirement to pay the Request fee.

If access to a Record/s is granted by PAFA, the Requestor may be required to pay an access fee for the search for and preparation of the Records and for re-production of the Record/s. The access fees which apply are set out below.

Access fees

An access fee is payable in all instances where a Request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of the Act, or an exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of Section 54(8). PAFA is entitled to withhold a Record until the required access fees have been paid.

The applicable access fees which will be payable, for the time being, are:

Where an institution has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of Records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such Records, will be a fee for the reproduction of the Record in question.

Deposits

Where PAFA receives a Request for access to information held on a person other than the Requestor himself/herself and the Group Information Officer upon receipt of the Request is of the opinion that the preparation of the required Record of disclosure will take more than 6 (six) hours, a deposit is payable by the Requestor. The Requestor may make an application to Court to be exempted from the requirement to pay this deposit. If a deposit is made and access to the Records requested is subsequently refused, the deposit will be repaid to the Requestor.

The amount of the deposit is equal to $\frac{1}{3}$ (one third) of the amount of the applicable access fee.

Note: In terms of Regulation 8, Value Added Tax (VAT) must be added to all fees prescribed in terms of the Regulations.
